and I in him. I will raise him up on the last day. He will not be subject to condemnation. Rather, he will enter from death into eternal life." In accordance with this promise, may the Lord bless and protect this congregation / that has partaken of this Holy Qurbana. May we, who joyfully participated in these glorious, holy, life-giving, and divine mysteries, be crowned with glory. Now, + always and forever.

(On days of commemoration of the dead)

CEL: Lord, hear our prayer. May our supplications reach Your presence. Receive our sacrifices and offerings, and pardon the offences of the departed ones. Lord, mercifully accept this sacrifice / that we offer on behalf of Your servant (s) / as You accepted the first sacrifice of Abel, the innocent, and the sacrifices of Noah, the spotless and blameless, of Abraham who put his trust in you, of Job who bore his afflictions patiently, of Elias your true prophet, and of Your disciples in the Upper Room. Accept this sacrifice as You accepted the widow's mite. Make our departed brother (sister, brethren) / worthy to enter the heavenly bridal chamber / together with the just who have done Your will. Lord, accept this sacrifice that we offer / on behalf of Your servant (s); forgive the debts and blot out the iniquities of this departed person / and his (her, their) loved ones. Merciful Lord! Make this (these) humble servant(s) worthy to dwell in the heavenly bridal chamber, on Your right side with the just ones. Remember this (these) servant(s) in that blessed and glorious place and grant him (her, them) happiness and eternal peace. May he (she/they) offer Your Divine Trinity praise and honor, thanksgiving, and worship forever. May all of You who have participated in this holy service be made worthy of the forgiveness of sins through the divine mercy. Lord, Our God! Pour out Your abundant blessings on this congregation, on this house, and on all of us. Now, + always, and forever.

CON: Amen.

(Final Prayer on ordinary Days)

CEL: We have praised, honored, and ministered to Our Lord Jesus Christ / through these glorious, sacred, life-giving and divine mysteries. May He make us worthy of the glory of His kingdom, eternal happiness with His holy angels, and joy in His di-

Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Lord of all, forever.

CON: Amen, Bless us, O Lord!

CEL: Christ who is our Lord and God, King, and Savior, and Life-Giver, in His mercy has made us / worthy to receive His sanctifying and precious Body and Blood. May He bless us, so that we may please Him / through our thoughts, words, and deeds. Lord! In Your immense mercy, may the covenant we have received from You / be for the remission of debts / and for the forgiveness of sins, great hope for the resurrection of the dead / and new life everlasting in heaven / with all those who found favor in Your presence. Lord of all, forever.

CON: Amen.

(On ordinary days)

CEL: Lord, Our God! In your mercy, You have given us these glorious, holy, life-giving, and divine mysteries for the forgiveness of sins. We are bound to offer Your Most Blessed Trinity everlasting praise and honor, thanksgiving and adoration for this gift. Lord of all, the Father, the Son, and, the Holy Spirit, forever.

Concluding Prayers

(On Sundays and Feast Days)

CEL: Lord, our God! It is right and just at every moment / and in all seasons to offer praise, worship, and thanksgiving to Your Glorious name. In Your great compassion, though we are weak, You made us worthy, to relish the sweetness of Your life-giving and divine words, to glorify Your name with the angels, to partake in these holy mysteries You have given us, and to sing constantly hymns of praise and thanksgiving to You, Most High. The blessings and mercy be on us at all times.

(The celebrant taking the Sacred Host in his hands, recites in a low voice the following prayer)

O Lord! Let not Your body bring me condemnation But rather remission of debts and forgiveness of sins.

(Celebrant receives the Body and he takes the chalice and says)

O heavenly groom! You prepared the cup of Your most Precious Blood for the guests at your banquet.

(Celebrant receives the blood) You allowed me, sinful as I am, to partake of that cup. Glory be to You for ever, for Your ineffable love. Amen.

CEL: May the grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ who gives us life, be made perfect in us + through His mercy. (+ The celebrant blesses the people).

CON: Always and forever. Amen.

SER: Brothers and Sisters, the holy Church invites You to receive the Body and Blood of the Son of God, with faith in the heavenly kingdom.

(The celebrant while giving communion says)

May the Body and Blood of Christ be unto the forgiveness of sins and eternal life.

(The people receive Holy Communion)

(After the Holy Communion the celebrant says the following prayer.)

CEL: Christ, our Lord, hope of mankind! Let not the holy Body and the precious Blood / that we have received, result in our judgment and condemnation. Rather, may they obtain for us remission of our debts, forgiveness of our sins, and fulfillment in Your presence. Lord of all, forever. Amen.

(On Sundays and days of commemoration)

CON: Christ, Our Lord! O Adorable King / You triumphed over death / through Your passion! Son of God, You have promised us a new life / in the Kingdom of heaven! Banish all evil from us. May peace and blessings / flourish in our land. May we find life /

(Period of the Summer)

(Psalm 23)

CEL: The Lord is my shepherd;
There is nothing I shall want.

ALL: Enable Your Church to grow vigorously,
Protect her with the fortress of faith.

CEL: In green pastures You let me graze;
To safe waters You lead me.

ALL: You restore my strength.
You guide me along the right path for the sake of Your name.

CEL: Even when I walk through a dark valley,
I fear no harm for You are at my side.

ALL: Your rod and staff give me courage.

giving Body. In the name of the Father, + and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

(The celebrant now signs the half of the Host on the paten with the half of the Host in his right hand. As he does that, he says):

The Sacred Body of Our Lord Jesus Christ is signed with His propitiatory Blood. In the name of the Father, + and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

(Holding both pieces of the divided Host together over the chalice, he says)

These glorious, life-giving, holy, and divine mysteries have been set apart, sanctified, perfected, commingled and united with each other in the adorable and exalted name of the most glorious Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Lord, our God, through these holy mysteries, may the holy Church here and everywhere and all of us obtain remission of debts, forgiveness of sins, hope for resurrection, and new life in the kingdom of heaven. Now, always, and forever.
(The celebrant places the two halves on the paten one upon the other cross-wise so that the broken end of the particle below faces the chalice, and the particle above, the priest. Then he bows and with his right thumb makes the sign of the cross on his forehead. Then he unfolds the veil, which is wrapped around the sacred mysteries and says:)

Praise to You, Our Lord, Jesus Christ. For although I am unworthy, in Your mercy You ordained me the minister and mediator of these glorious, life-giving, holy, and divine mysteries. By Your grace, make me worthy for the remission of debts and forgiveness of sins. Amen.

(The celebrant bows, he crosses himself and says the following prayer in a loud voice.)

CEL: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God the Father and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all, now, + always and forever. (+ The celebrant signs himself)

CON: Amen.

SER: Let us approach the mysteries / of the Precious Body and Blood of our Savior / with reverence and respect. With the hope, arising from repentance, let us turn away from wrong-doing, repent of our sins, and forgive the trespasses of our brothers and sisters. Let us pray to God, the Lord of all, for mercy and forgiveness.

CEL: (Raising his hands) Bless us, O Lord. May Your mercy draw us near to these glorious, sacred, life-giving, and divine mysteries, though truly we are unworthy.

(The celebrant kisses the altar, with his hands held to his chest in the form of the cross. He raises the Host and says)

CEL: O, Lord, Jesus Christ! May there be glory to your name / and worship to Your majesty forever. For, this living and life-giving bread / has come down from heaven / and gives life to the whole world. Whoever eats this bread will not die, but will receive remission of sins, attain salvation, and live forever.

(SONG or the following prayer)

CON: "I am the living bread / that has come down from heaven. I am the bread / that has come down from on high. Whoever approaches me / and receives me with love, will live in me forever / and will inherit the kingdom of heaven;" This is the mystery revealed to the disciples by our Savior. All the ministers / who do His Will, / the Cherubim, the Seraphim, and the Archangels / stand before the altar / with awe to observe the priest (the bishop) / breaking the Body of Christ / for the remission of sins. Open to us O Lord, the gates of justice. Merciful Lord, who calls sinners to You / and opens the doors for the penitent, may we enter into Your presence / and sing Your praises day and night.

CEL: Lord, our God, we approach these sacred mysteries with true faith in your name. Through Your great favor and mercy we break and sign the Body and Blood of Your Son and Our Lord, Jesus Christ. In the name of the Father, + the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Forever.

(The celebrant divides the Host in two. As he signs the chalice with the broken Host in his right hand. he says)

The precious Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ is signed with His life-

CEL: You set a table before me as my enemies watch.

ALL: You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

of Mary, the Virgin Mother of God, and of the just and holy Fathers / who found favor in Your presence / through Your infinite mercy. Grant us Your peace and tranquility / all the days of our lives. Let all the people on earth know / that You alone are the true God, the Father, and that You sent Your beloved Son Jesus Christ

CEL: May all the people know that Christ, our Lord and God, in His life giving Gospel, came and taught us the way of purity and sanctity of the prophets and apostles, martyrs and confessors, doctors and bishops, priests and deacons, and all the children of the holy Catholic Church / who have been signed with the living and life-giving seal of baptism. (+ Celebrant marks the altar with the sign of the cross). Lord, we Your humble, weak, and distressed servants / having received Your example from generation to generation, have come together in Your name, and stand in Your holy presence rejoicing and glorifying. We commemorate and celebrate these great, awesome, holy, life-giving, and divine mystery of the passion, death, burial, and resurrection of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ.

(The celebrant holds his right hand crossed over his left over the sacred mysteries in the sign of the cross).

SER: Let us pray in silence and reverence. Peace be with us.

CEL: Lord, our God, May Your Holy Spirit descend on this Qurbana. May He dwell on this Qurbana of Your servants, and bless and sanctify it. May this Qurbana grant us / remission of our debts, forgiveness of our sins, great hope in the resurrection of the dead, and new life in Your heavenly kingdom / with all those who have found favor in Your presence.

CEL: Lord, Our God! We offer You unending praise for Your glorious / and ineffable plan for our salvation. We offer You thanksgiving with joy and hope, in Your Church redeemed by / the precious blood of Your Anointed One.

CEL: We offer glory and honor, thanksgiving, and worship to Your living, holy, and life-giving name. Now, (+The celebrant blesses the mysteries) always and forever.

CON: Amen

MEMORIAL OF THE DEAD

(Psalm 129)

CEL: Lord, out of the depths, I cry to You. Lord, hear my voice.

ALL: Lord who awakens the dead, may Your name be praised.

CEL: Hear my prayers. If You, O Lord, should mark iniquities, who could stand?

ALL: For, forgiveness of sins is from You I trust in the Lord.

CEL: My hope is in His promise. Lord, I wait for You like the sentinels who wait for the dawn.

ALL: Israel also waits for the Lord as the sentinels who wait for the dawn.

CEL: For He is merciful. The total salvation is in his hands.

ALL: He will save Israel from its sins.

CEL: Glory be to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

ALL: From the beginning is now, always and forever, Amen.

CEL: Lord, who awakens the dead, may Your name be praised.

(After the Psalms)

SER: Let us pray. Peace be with us.

CEL: Lord, our God! When the sweet fragrance of Your love / wafts over us / and when our souls are enlightened / with the knowledge of Your truth, may we be found worthy / to receive Your beloved son / as He appears from the heaven. May we also glorify You / and praise You unceasingly in Your Church, crowned like a spouse / with every goodness and grace. For You are the Lord / and creator of all forever and ever.

ALL: Amen.

your divine life, You assumed our human nature, restored us from our fallen state, and brought us from death to life eternal. Forgiving our debts, You sanctified us sinners, enlightened our minds, defeated our enemies, and glorified our frail nature by Your immense grace.

CEL: We give You glory and honor, thanksgiving and adoration / for all Your favors and graces / You have granted us. (Celebrant signs the mysteries) Now, + always, and forever.

CON: Amen

SER: Pray in your hearts. Peace be with us.

CEL: (Extending his hands) For the Supreme Pontiff in Rome, the ruler and head of the universal Church, Pope Benedict, for the Major Archbishop, the head and Father of our Church Mar Varkey, Our Bishop Mar Jacob, Archbishop Mar Mathew and Bishop Mar Joseph, for the entire holy Catholic Church, for priests, rulers, and all those who are in authority, Lord, Mighty God, receive this Qurbana.

CON: Lord, graciously receive this Qurbana.

CEL: For the honor and glory of all the prophets, disciples, martyrs, confessors and all the just and holy fathers / who have found favor in your presence, Lord, receive this Qurbana.

CON: Lord, graciously receive this Qurbana.

CEL: For all those who suffer and are in distress, the poor and the oppressed, the sick and the afflicted, for all those who have departed from us in your name, for this Your people who await Your mercy with great hope, and for me Your unworthy servant, Lord, receive this Qurbana.

CON: Lord, graciously receive this Qurbana.

(Recites the Fourth G'hantha with closed palms and bowed head).

CEL: Lord, Our God, as You taught us, we offer You the Body and Blood / of Your Anointed One / on this pure and holy altar. May we invoke in this memorial celebration, the sacred memory (Recites the Third G'hantha with closed palms and bowed head).

CEL: Lord, Our God! Together with the heavenly hosts we give You thanks. We glorify and bless God the Word, hidden offspring from your bosom. He is Your own likeness and splendor / and the Image of Your own Being. Setting aside His equality with You, He emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant / born of a woman / he became a complete human being / with a rational, intelligent, and immortal soul, and a mortal body.

He subjected Himself to the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law. He left for us the memorial of our salvation, this redemptive mystery, which we now offer before You.

CEL: Lord, our God! We commemorate the passion of Your beloved Son, as He taught us. On the night He was handed over, Jesus took bread (takes the paten with both hands) in his pure and holy hands, Lifted up His eyes to Heaven (raises his eyes towards heaven) to You, the adorable Father, Blessed it, +++ Broke it, and Gave it to the disciples, saying: "This is my Body which is broken for You for the forgiveness of sins. Take this all of you and eat it"

CON: Amen

CEL: Likewise, taking the cup, (He takes it with both hands) He gave thanks, blessed it, +++ and gave it to them saying: "This is my blood of the new covenant, Which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins. Take this all of you and drink from it"

CON: Amen

CEL: Whenever You gather together in my name, do this in memory of me.

(All bow in reverence)

CEL: Lord, as You have commanded us, we Your humble, weak, and distressed servants / are gathered together in Your presence. You have showered upon us such great blessings / for which we can never thank You enough. To make us share in

SER: Let us pray. Peace be with us.

CEL: Glorious, Mighty, Immortal, and Holy God! You who are pleased to dwell in the holy ones! We beseech You! Look upon us, pardon us, and show us compassion / according to Your nature. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Lord of all, forever.

ALL: Amen.

(The celebrant kisses the altar and says the following prayer in a low voice.)

God the Father, You are holy. You alone are the true Father! All Fatherhood in heaven and on earth comes from you. Eternal Son, You are holy. Everything was created through You. Holy Spirit, You are Holy. Everything is sanctified through You.

Woe to me! I am dismayed! For, my lips are unclean. And I live in the midst of people with unclean lips. My eyes have seen the King, the almighty Lord. How awe-inspiring is this place where today I have seen the Lord face to face! This is none other than the House of God! Lord, may your mercy be on us. Clean us who are unclean and sanctify our lips. Lord, enjoin the hymns of us, who are feeble, with the praises of the Seraphim and the Archangels. Praise be to your mercy that has unified the inhabitants of heaven and earth.

(Of Saints Addai and Mari, the disciples of St. Thomas the apostle, venerated as the teachers of the East.)

CEL: (Recites the First G'hantha prayer with closed palms and bowed head.)
 Lord, Our God, we thank You for the abundant graces / You have showered on us. For, though we are sinful and weak, through Your infinite mercy, You have made us worthy to be ministers / of the sacred mysteries of the Body and Blood / of Your Anointed One. We implore You to strengthen us / to celebrate with deep love and true faith / these gifts that You have given us.

(The celebrant kisses the altar, crosses his hands over his chest, and prays:)

CEL: We offer you praise and honor, worship and thanksgiving.
(The celebrant crosses himself) Now, + always and forever.

CON: Amen

(The celebrant blesses the people)

CEL: Peace + be with you.

CON: With you and with your spirit.

(One of the servers receives the sign of peace from the celebrant and offers peace to the other servers and the assembly.)

SER: (Facing the congregation) My brothers and sisters, give peace to one another / in the love of Christ. Let us thank the Lord / and entreat Him with pure and contrite hearts. Let us stand with due reverence / and be attentive to the awe-inspiring mysteries being celebrated here. The priest (bishop) is imploring that / peace may flourish through his intercession. Bowing our heads, let us lift up our thoughts to heaven, and pray fervently and devotedly / in your hearts. Peace be with us.

(During the above prayers, celebrant recites in a low voice).

Lord! Mighty God! In Your mercy, help me in my weakness. By Your grace make me worthy to offer before You, this living and holy sacrifice for the good of this congregation and for the praise of Your adorable Trinity. Lord of all, forever.

ALL: "Come, Lord Jesus."

SER: Jesus, You came as the promised savior / to redeem the fallen ones, due to Adam's sin. Come Lord Jesus / to purify us and save us from sins.

ALL: "Come, Lord Jesus."

SER: Jesus, whom the forefathers longed to see, come to enrich the Church with Your blessings.

ALL: "Come, Lord Jesus."

PIRAVIKKALAM
(Period of Nativity)

SER: Let us repeat with joy and reverence, "We praise You, Lord."

ALL: We praise You, Lord.

SER: O God, for the abundant love / that made You to give us / Your only begotten Son.

ALL: We praise You, Lord.

SER: O God, who led the humble shepherds / and the wise men to the Divine Infant.

ALL: We praise You, Lord.

SER: O God, who blessed the world with peace and hope / and showed us the example of humility and poverty / through the incarnation of Your beloved Son.

ALL: We praise You, Lord.

SER: O God, who made us Your children / and heirs of Your heavenly kingdom / through Christ incarnate.

ALL: We praise You, Lord.

SER: O God, who give us the glorious fruits / of Your incarnation / through the Holy Church.

ALL: We praise You, Lord.

bishops / and for all priests, deacons, / young men and virgins, / our parents, / brothers and sisters, / sons, and daughters. Let us remember all the rulers who love Christ / and are faithful to Him / and all who have departed from this world / in true faith. Through the grace of Christ, may this sacrifice obtain for us help, salvation and life everlasting / in the Kingdom of heaven.

(Celebrant approaches the altar making three deep bows, while praying in a low voice.)

CEL: I give You thanks, O God, Lord of heaven and earth, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Though I am a sinner, in Your mercy You have made me worthy to offer You the glorious, life-giving and divine mysteries of the Body and Blood of Your Anointed One.

I celebrate these divine mysteries for the people, Your flock, for the remission of their debts, the forgiveness of their sins, the salvation of their souls, the reconciliation of the whole world, and for peace and tranquility of all the Churches.

(The celebrant approaches the altar. He bows down and reverently kisses the altar in the middle, on the right side and on the left side. Coming back to the middle of the altar he says:)

CEL: Bless, O Lord!

(Turning towards the assembly and extending his arms, he invites the assembly, saying:)

CEL: Pray for me, brothers and sisters, that this Qurbana may be fulfilled through my hands.

CON: May God the Lord of all, / strengthen you to fulfill His Will. May He accept this Qurbana / and be pleased with the sacrifice / You offer for yourself, for us, and for the whole world. Amen.

(The celebrant says the following prayer in a low voice.)

Lord God, Jesus Christ! Regard not the multitude of our sins, nor anger at the depth of our evilness. Sanctify this sacrifice in your ineffable great mercy that we may find mercy and grace in Your holy presence and be made worthy to sing your praises with the heavenly hosts when You appear at the end of time in our human nature that You assumed. Grant it strength to wipe away our transgressions.

(Bowing down the celebrant says this prayer in a low voice)

Lord, our God! Grant that we may enter the Holy of Holies with clean hearts and pure conscience. May we stand before your altar with devotion, diligence and purity. Make us worthy to offer You sacrifices, both rational and spiritual in true faith.

(ON SUNDAYS)

CEL: (With open arms) We believe in One God, the Father almighty,

ALL: Creator of all things / visible and invisible, and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, the first born of all creatures, born of the Father before all ages, and not made, true God from true God, consubstantial with his Father.

Through Him the worlds were formed / and all things were created. For the sake of us men / and for our salvation / He came down from heaven; / and became incarnate by the Holy Spirit / and became man, / and was conceived and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered and was crucified / in the days of Pontius Pilate / died and was buried; / and on the third day rose again / as it is written.

He ascended into heaven / and sits at the right hand of his Father. He will come again / to judge the dead.

We believe in one Holy Spirit; the spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father and the Son / the life giving Spirit.

We believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. We confess one baptism for the remission of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

AFTER THE KAROZUTHA

SER: Bless us, O Lord. Brothers and Sisters, bow your heads for the imposition of hands and receive the blessing.

(Everybody bows. The celebrant bows and says the following prayer in a low voice.)

(On Sundays and Feast Days)

CEL: Lord, Almighty God! Yours is the Holy Catholic Church, the flock, redeemed through the passion and suffering of Your Anointed Son. Through the Grace of the Holy Spirit / who is one in Divine Being with You, the orders of true priesthood are conferred / by the imposition of hands. In Your great mercy, You have made us worthy - weak and lowly though we are - to be distinctive members of Your mystical body, the Church, to minister to the faithful. Lord, fill us with Your mercy and grace / and pour forth Your blessings through our hands. May Your mercy and blessings be on us / and on this Your chosen people.

(On weekdays and during Lent)

CEL: Lord, our God! Extend Your merciful right hand / over the universal and apostolic Church. Protect it from every danger, visible and invisible. In Your compassion / make us worthy to minister in Your presence / with devotion, diligence, and purity.

(Resuming a straight posture, the celebrant prays in a loud voice)

CEL: Merciful God! Bless us. Grant that all of us, as one body, may properly please You throughout our lives, by works of justice, that reconcile us with You. Make us worthy to offer You never-ending praise, homage, thanksgiving, and adoration. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Lord of all, forever.

SER: Let us commend ourselves / and one another to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

ALL: Lord, Our God, we commend ourselves to You.

CEL: Lord, who conquered death; fill Your Church with new life / by being alive in it. Make us companions of your life of sacrifice / to enable us to be partners in your resurrection. May your peace and tranquility / dwell in this congregation, families and the entire mankind / forever and ever.
